369 Quick-Start Guide

Everything you need to begin tonight — on one page.

1

CHOOSE ONE DESIRE

Pick one specific desire. Not five. One. The 369 method works through focused repetition — a single clear signal beats a scattered broadcast every time.

2

WRITE YOUR STATEMENT

Use the formula: "I am so grateful and happy now that [desire], because [feeling]." Present tense. Emotionally charged. Specific.

3

MORNING — WRITE IT 3 TIMES

Within an hour of waking, before checking your phone. Feel each word as you write it. This plants the seed for your entire day.

4

MIDDAY — WRITE IT 6 TIMES

Around lunch. Pause the noise, take three breaths, return to your desire. This amplifies the morning signal exactly when your energy dips.

5

EVENING — WRITE IT 9 TIMES

Within an hour of sleep. Your subconscious processes whatever you feed it last. Write with complete surrender, then release it entirely.

6

TRACK THE SIGNS

Angel numbers, unexpected calls, aligned moments. Log every one in your journal. Evidence compounds — and belief follows evidence.

One desire. Three sessions. Twenty-eight days. That is the whole method.

Your journal holds the structure — you just show up.

Vision Board Kit

Your desires deserve to be seen daily. Build the board that keeps them alive.

GATHER

Print the word cut-outs on the next page. Collect magazine images, photos, or print pictures that make your chest expand when you look at them.

ARRANGE

Use the 9-zone grid page in your journal, a poster board, or a corkboard. Place your 369 desire statement at the very center — everything else orbits it.

ACTIVATE

Look at your board during every 369 writing session. Vision plus written repetition plus feeling is the full-spectrum signal.

REFRESH

At each new moon, remove anything that no longer resonates and add what does. A living board manifests. A stale one decorates.
